Romulus to use punch cards Nov. 2

By JIM BRADLEY
Roman Staff Writer

The City of Romulus will offer some of its citizens a brand new service for the Nov. 2 election — "punch card" voting.

The system has been installed for absentee voters only at this time because city officials want to test and evaluate the system prior to a complete changeover which would have all voters involved in the process.

"Dearborn, Dearborn Heights and Allen Park presently use punch card voting for all their balloting," said Romulus City Clerk Leonard Folmar, "and Detroit uses it for absentee voting."

"The system provides for a higher degree of accuracy, more accountability, greater efficiency, reduces the time required to count ballots dramatically and is much more economical," he explained.

Folmar saw punch card voting demonstrated at a recent clerks' seminar and also talked extensively with other city clerks who use the system. He estimated that some 400 Romulus voters would cast absentee ballots and advised anyone with questions about the new system to call his office at 941-0666.

"Actually, it's very simple to use," Folmar said. "In order to vote the punch card ballot, all that is required is that you punch out the dot above the number corresponding to the candidate for whom you wish to vote."

Folmar explained that each absentee voter will be supplied with a complete packet which includes a voter's guide listing all candidates and proposals to be voted on and a complete set of instructions on how to vote the absentee ballot.

"Any registered elector who expects to be absent from the community on election day, is 60 years of age or older, unable to attend the polls because of his religious beliefs, or has some physical disability, can vote by means of an absent voter ballot," Folmar said.

There are 14,600 registered voters on the Romulus rolls and the city clerk estimated that approximately 10,000 would vote on Nov. 2 in the presidential election. In the last presidential election in 1972, there were 10,000 registered voters and about 7,000 cast their ballots.

The instruction sheet to absentee voters stresses that this is a general election and those casting ballots can vote either a straight or split ticket. Folmar said that if any voter spoils his ballot, he should immediately contact city hall and request a new ballot.

"Regardless if a person votes absent voter ballot or at their regular precinct, it is critically important that everyone vote Nov. 2, 1976," he emphasized.

Romulus enters 'punch card' era

Romulus City Clerk Leonard Folmar uses a paper clip to demonstrate the new "punch card" that absentee voters will use in the city for the first time on Nov. 2. The cards will be put into a mini-computer for rapid tabulation. If the new

Romulus hosts officials from 17 communities

By JIM BRADLEY
Roman Staff Writer

Representatives from 17 surrounding communities and several Wayne County officials met at Romulus City Hall Monday at the request of Mayor James Stewart to investigate managing and financing the Huron Valley Wastewater System.

Involved in the discussion is the building of a sanitary interceptor sewer in the Huron River Valley to Hannan Road and north on Hannan

Road into Oakland County. Plans have been pending for almost 10 years now and Stewart sent out a letter outlining his feeling of urgency to "get the ball rolling" on the project.

Originally, the Michigan

Department of Natural Resources (DNR) proposed a facility plan for Wayne and Oakland Counties and a portion of Washtenaw County, which included Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor. Controversy raged for years, according to observers, stifling progress.

Recently a number of options were considered and the Water Resources Commission (WRC) determined that Washtenaw County should be separated from the remainder of the study area and allowed to proceed on its own. On September 24, the WRC concurred in a recommendation from Wayne County favoring Plan III over the others.

"The action at the WRC has cleared the way for construction plan grants on step 2 and step 3 provided we, the Wayne County communities, can get our act together," Stewart told those present.

City Engineer Robert Wade felt much was accomplished at the meeting. "I definitely feel we made much progress in getting this thing going and have another meeting planned at Romulus City Hall on Nov. 8, to discuss apportionment of engineering costs," Wade said.

Between now and the next meeting, a resolution is being drawn up which will show support of the Wayne County Board of Public Works by all concerned communities. This resolution of support is needed to comply with an Environmental Protection Agency requirement for the water pollution control grant, according to Wade. Grant monies must be committed by September 30, 1977, and seven things must be accomplished by then, according to Stewart.

The list includes:
• Agreement on a management format for operation of the system.
• Agreement on a method of financing the system.

• Development and entering into contracts with the operating agency.

• Settlement on the scope of final project.

• Designing the system and preparing final construction plans.

• Obtaining all necessary reviews and approvals.

• Applying for and obtaining a Step 3 construction grant commitment.

"There are those at all levels of government who are saying we cannot do it, that we are too divided, that we do not share a common interest," Stewart said in his invitation letters to county and community representatives.

"I believe we can do it and do it effectively within the one year time limit," he said.

Sending representatives to the meeting were the townships of Northville, Plymouth, Canton, Van Buren, Sumpter, Huron and Brownstown. Cities who sent officials included Northville, Plymouth, Belleville, Romulus, Woodhaven, Flat Rock, Rockwood, Trenton, Gibraltar and Riverview.

County officials present included John Barr, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners; William Marks of the Department of Natural Resources; Mike Zolik and Chuck Van Deusen, Wayne County Road Commission; and George Bingham, and Duane Egeland, of the Wayne County Board of Public Works. Consultants Robert Ham-mell and Price Kimbrough also attended the meeting.

Seniors urged to get flu shots

All senior citizens are encouraged to get their Swine Flu shots today and this Saturday, at Romulus City Hall which will be open from 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. both days for the inoculations.

The shots will be administered by the American Red Cross.

"We know it may be short notice, but we urge as many as possible to receive the shots," a spokesman for the inoculation drive said this week.

Anyone having questions is urged to call City Hall at 941-0666.

Mrs. Ida Klages is 89 years old but the Romulus resident has lost none of her alertness as she plays cards with the Wayne senior citizens at the Wayne Community Center last Wednesday. She studies her hand and then seems to be asking: "How did you come up with four aces?" The senior citizens clubs throughout the surrounding areas are experiencing an increase in numbers and enthusiasm. People like Mrs. Klages is one reason why.

Rep. Ford tells gathering

Educators' efforts attract more funding

The organized efforts of local educators have been largely responsible for massive increases in federal dollars for Michigan's school districts, according to Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District).

That was the message Ford delivered to the school officials gathered for the dedication of the new Wayne County Intermediate School District Education Center in Wayne last Thursday.

Ford told the educators that, in the 12 years since he was elected to Congress, federal aid to Michigan school districts has increased by 75 percent.

"In 1964 Michigan received only $35 million in federal education funds," he said. "In 1965, my first year in Congress, we passed the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, which that year funneled $97 million to Michigan schools. The figure has risen steadily, reaching a high of $270 million this year — an increase of 750 percent since 1964."

The congressman attributed the huge increase to the efforts of school board members, administrators, teachers and parents, who have become actively involved in the legislative process.

"Your efforts have paid off," Congressman Ford assured the officials. "They paid off in passing the Education of All Handicapped Children Act."

"Your efforts have helped add millions of extra dollars to education appropriations, and your work has helped the Congress override repeated Presidential vetoes of education funds."

He specifically cited the congressional override of President Ford's veto of 1977 education appropriations in the closing days of the 94th Congress.

"For Michigan alone, this meant $30,000,000 more than would have been provided in the President's budget," Ford said.

The margin of this veto override was doubly significant, he added, since it helped convince the President to sign two other important bills which he had also been expected to veto.

One was a $3.7 billion public works bill, which will benefit state and local governments as well as school districts. In addition to bringing about long-delayed local improvements, the bill is expected to provide some 300,000 jobs nationwide.

The second bill will extend the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) emergency public service jobs program for an additional year, and will launch an expanded program which could create up to 500,000 new jobs.

"The reason these two bills were not vetoed was the overwhelming override of his education-fund veto," Congressman Ford said. "The President can recognize a speeding train when it hits him."

Dr. William Simmons, superintendent of the Wayne County Intermediate School District, was singled out for special praise by Ford, who described him as "one of the most respected education-legislation experts in the country."

"Bill Simmons, whom I've known and worked with for many years, was a pioneer in getting educators involved in the legislative and appropriations process," Ford said.

He spoke of Dr. Simmons' instrumental role in the organization of a national educators' coalition, which now has a permanent office in Washington to coordinate the fight for increased federal education funds.

Ford also praised Dr. Simmons for his leadership in the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

"Since Bill Simmons took over the county helm in 1972, he has been responsible for bringing millions of extra education dollars into Wayne County," Ford said. "The opening of this new Education Center is a monument to the achievements and hard work of Dr. Simmons, of the Wayne county."

In closing, Ford reminded the school officials that, despite their great successes, they still have a long way to go.

"In spite of all our efforts, the federal government today contributes only 7 percent of the cost of educating America's children," he concluded. "There is no reason why the federal government cannot become a full partner with state and local governments in paying for education. That day will come only when the federal contribution is increased to a full one-third of the cost."

County moves to alleviate Youth Home overcrowding

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners has moved to provide the county Youth Home with additional manpower and wards to handle a "mushrooming" juvenile population.

The board approved six additional juvenile group leaders on a temporary basis so that more ward space at the home can be available, particularly to handle boys.

The new positions, approved at the board's Oct. 7 meeting, will be funded through the current fiscal year, which ends Nov. 30, at a cost of $11,510.

The board also recently approved six additional Sheriff's deputies to insure 24-hour 7-day security at the Juvenile Court-Youth Home complex.

Last month, the board beefed up the staffing of the home by adding eight permanent juvenile group leaders. This action permitted the opening of additional ward units which are structured to handle 15 youths each. The youth home can now handle from 200 to 235 juvenile offenders.

Because of a continued anticipated heavy flow of juvenile arrests, the board has also directed the county to seek a $666,900 federal grant that would help free up bed space at the home.

"Juvenile Judge James Lincoln advised us that the space needs for boys in the Youth Home had become critical," Board Chairman John Barr said. "It was necessary, he (Lincoln) said, to move boys into the girls' units or to release juveniles who should not be released."

"Our action to put on six additional group leaders — four male and two female — helped us meet State Licensing Bureau requirements that are more strict for boys."

Barr added that the federal grant, authorized under the Law Enforcement Assistance Act (LEAA), would greatly reduce overcrowding at the youth home because it involves removing all status offenders — and most of those are girls.

"A 'status offender' is an individual who by virtue of his/her status of a juvenile or minor is engaged in "criminal activity" — home or school truancy, incorrigibility, curfew violations — those actions which would not be "criminal" if the offender were an adult.

The grant would enable the county to create two 12-bed residential facilities as temporary shelter for status offenders who would otherwise be confined to the youth home, Barr explained.

"That would free needed bed space for serious felony cases," he added.

The total grant program would cost $741,000 with the county and the state each contributing $37,050 each.

The commissioners currently are involved in month-long budget deliberations and will review all of these actions and additional expenditures for the new fiscal year beginning Dec. 1.

Flower power

Belleville High School's school colors will be in full bloom Friday when the Belleville Kiwanis Club stages a flower sale. Corsages of mums with a black B for Belleville High and orange bows will be sold by the civic organization to help build pep for the annual evening gridiron Homecoming confrontation. The corsages will be sold for the Homecoming dance which will follow the game, with proceeds to benefit needy children. Showing off one of the "football flowers" are Peg Chizmar (left) and Sharon Richendollar.

Parents' fund raising saves JHS football

Due to the recent defeats of school millage proposals, parents of junior high school football players have come to the rescue in Romulus with fund-raising ideas.

Seventh, 8th and 9th graders at North and South Junior Highs were destined not to have the opportunity to play on the gridiron until the parents stepped in and promised to underwrite the cost of the games.

Latest in the many efforts to raise money for the junior high football program is a 1950s Record Hop Benefit Dance Saturday, Oct. 23, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Romulus' V.F.W. Hall, Huron River Drive near Hannan Road.

"We were greatly disappointed when we heard the 7th, 8th and 9th grade boys wouldn't have a football program this fall," explained Mrs. Judy Sullivan, who is helping arrange the benefit dance. "All the proceeds will go to the junior high school football program to pay the officials and other financial needs for the games," she said.

There will be free beer and set-ups, and the tickets are $5 to help the aspiring O. J. Simpsons and Fran Tarkentons.

The parents also have held a "Button Day" and sell refreshments at Romulus High School varsity games to help raise money.

"We hope the people of the area will support our efforts to help all the boys play football and not be deprived of these important times in their lives," said Mrs. Sullivan, who may be contacted at 941-3961 for any other information.

Belleville HS holds annual open house

The annual "Open House" at Belleville High School will be held on next Wednesday, from 7:30 until 9 p.m., Principal John Ford announced this week.

Parents are invited to attend the affair and talk with teachers of their sons and daughters.

Guests will be met by student "greeters" and given a map of the building and a list of teachers showing the rooms in which they may be found.

There will be entertainment by the High School Choir and Jazz Band and refreshments will be served.

"We look forward to meeting the parents and having them as our guests next Wednesday evening," Ford said.

Williamson named to head ANP circulation department

David Williamson has been appointed circulation manager of Associated Newspapers, General Manager John Tarrant announced this week.

Williamson, 22, recently served six months with the Sterling Heights Advisor in the same capacity. Prior to that, he was district circulation manager for Associated Newspaper from January, 1973 to last April.

A 1972 graduate of Sterling Heights Adlai Stevenson High School, Williamson previously worked with the Utica Sentinel in 1969.

David and his wife, Annette, reside in Sterling Heights.

Williamson succeeds William McNeight, who was named circulation manager at Panax Corporation's Iron Mountain, Mich., property.

McNeight was a dealer-distributor for The Macomb Daily, another Panax newspaper, before coming to Associated in January, 1975.

District to air budget

The Van Buren School District will hold a public hearing on its 1976-77 school year budget, Monday.

The hearing will begin at 9 p.m. at the School Administration Building, 555 West Columbia, in Belleville.

Attending the meeting will be the Board of Education, Supt. Dale Kaulitz and other administrators.

Szymon Goldberg to open program

Orchestra adds chamber music series

A new Chamber Music Series, featuring three of the world's greatest conductor-violinists, several special Christmas Festival events, three performances by the internationally-acclaimed City Center Joffrey Ballet and a return visit from "P.D.Q. Bach" have been added to the 1976-77 concert season of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra (DSO).

The Chamber Music Series is a first for the Detroit Symphony Chamber Orchestra and will open on Oct. 30. Szymon Goldberg will be the guest conductor-violinist. On Dec. 23, Rafael Druian will be on the podium for a program of seasonal music. The series will conclude Feb. 17, with the DSO conducting debut of Alexander Schneider. All three performances are scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Highlighting the holiday season this year will be the 1976 Christmas Festival, featuring a Messiah Singalong Dec. 21. DSO Conductor-in-Residence Paul Freeman will direct this audience participation performance. Vocal support for musically inclined concertgoers will be lent by soloists Candace Goetz, soprano; Louise Parker, contralto; Maurice Stern, tenor; Benjamin Matthews, bass-baritone, and the Rackham Symphony Choir.

One of the most outstanding dancers of our time, Jacques D'Amboise will guest star in Dance Detroit's production of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker" Ballet. Under the direction of Jacob Lasco, artistic director and choreographer, Dance Detroit or Marygrove College will perform with the Detroit Symphony Dec. 29-30, and at a special New Year's Gala Dec. 31. A toast-the-New-Year Party will be held in Ford Auditorium's Social Room immediately following the Dec. 31 performance.

Last year's performances demanded the return of the City Center Joffrey Ballet, which has been set for Feb. 19 and 20.

The zany Prof. Peter Schickele will be performer and intellectual guide through an evening of musical madness when "P.D.Q. Bach" comes to town for a Pension-Maintenance Fund Benefit Concert Feb. 25. P.D.Q.'s last visit to the Detroit Symphony stage was in the spring of 1973.

Season tickets for the Chamber Music Series, priced at $15.50, $12 and $7.50, are available now through the Season Ticket Department at Ford Auditorium at 961-0700.

Single tickets for all events will be placed on public sale at the Ford Auditorium Box Office at 9 a.m. Sept. 13. Messiah Singalong tickets will carry a general admission price of $4. Matinee prices for the "Nutcracker" Ballet are $5.50, $4 and $2.50; with evening prices set at $6.50, $5 and $3.50. Children 12 and under will be admitted for half-price to the "Nutcracker" performances.

Prices for New Year's Eve "Nutcracker" performance are $6.50, $5 and $3.50. The post-ballet party charge will be announced in

Young Vic takes stuffiness out of Shakespeare play

"Shakespeare for people who don't like Shakespeare" is the best way to describe the "fresh, new production" of "The Taming of the Shrew" being offered by London's Young Vic, the English repertory company which has brought its celebrated troupe of irreverent players to the Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts for a 1-week visit beginning this week.

Evening performances of Sophocles' "Oedipus the King" will alternate with three evening and two matinee performances of "Shrew".

Young Vic's rewritten version of "Shrew" is based on the premise that the Bard's original players must have ad-libbed wildly and adjusted their dialogue with local references for added fun.

The group's fresh approach to Shakespeare is apparent from the start of the production, since a tipsy Christopher Sly starts as a heckling member of the audience, bent on "ruining" the evening. The Young Vic keeps the befuddled Sly around for the whole evening, instead of "losing" him in the first act.

The production is in keeping with the original aims of the Young Vic which were to take the stuffiness out of the classics and make them entertaining to new audiences, especially the young.

In Detroit, Young Vic will balance comedy with tragedy by performing Sophocles' "Oedipus the King" on three of the evenings. Although the lighthearted touch cannot be applied, the troupe delivers this classic "in a fresh, clean and understandable fashion, splendidly

'Hermits' to visit Romulus

A household name along with the Rolling Stones and The Beatles, Herman's Hermits will be performing some of their greatest hits when the group appears at the Ramada Inn in Romulus on Oct. 28.

Known for their renditions of "I'm Henry the VIII", "There's a Kind of Hush" and "Mrs. Brown You've Got a Lovely Daughter", the group will appear in two shows at the motel-restaurant complex that night.

There will be a $5 cover charge for both performances — an 8 p.m. dinner show and a 10 p.m. cocktail show.

Their influence on contemporary pop music of the mid-60s has carried over into the 1970s, and Herman's Hermits have been described as "exciting, alive and fresh and still receive standing ovations while playing for capacity audiences throughout the world."

Reservations for the one night only appearance are available by calling 729-6300.

The Ramada Inn is located at I-94 and Merriman Road.

Chekhov's 'Sisters' is added to playbill

Anton Chekhov's "The Three Sisters" has been added to the Hilberry Theatre's 1976-77 repertory lineup.

The Chekhov play was added to help satisfy a 2-fold need, according to Leonard Leone, director of the Wayne State University Theatre.

"The talent we have gathered this season looks exceptionally good, and we wanted to provide more roles for them," he said. The Hilberry Theatre, which is a training and performance center for advanced graduate students in the theatre arts, emphasizes intensive performance experience in its educational program.

"The Three Sisters" also is a play which has repeatedly been requested by individuals and schools in our audience," Leone added. "And this season we have the talent available to do it."

The extra production will not change the performance schedule. Opening Tuesday Jan. 11, "The Sisters" will play on Wednesday nights which usually are dark. The Hilberry regularly performs only Thursday through Saturday evenings, except for the openings of new productions which are on Wednesday nights.

"The Three Sisters" also will appear three afternoons on the theatre's matinee schedule, which includes Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

Astral Rebekah Lodge No. 250 will hold a rummage, treasure and bake sale Oct. 26 and 27 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the 100F Hall, 970 Savage Rd., in Belleville.

Spooks to haunt Quirk School

An all-you-can-eat meal of pancakes will be only part of the fun Tuesday when Quirk Road Elementary School Parent-Teacher Organization holds its pancake supper and haunted house.

The organization has enlisted the aid of Frank Petroski of Dearborn Heights, known by his friends as Dr. Frankenstein, because of the monsters he creates in his spare time, to help with the special haunting.

Petroski has loaned the group five of his creations to display in the haunted house, which will be open from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Oct. 26.

But for those who wish to abstain from the scary scene, there also will be a cake walk, white elephant sale, Halloween play and bobbing for apples contest, as well as the pancake meal.

The meal, which costs $1.50 for adults, $1 for students and senior citizens and 75 cents for preschoolers, will include all the pancakes you can eat, sausage and a beverage. Tickets for the supper can be purchased at the door the night of the event.

The organization also is extending a "hearty thank you" to several merchants in the community who helped in the organization of the event.

Netting thank yous are Foodville Supermarket, Big Boy's Restaurant, Tin Lizzie Restaurant, McDonald's Restaurant, Meijer's Thrifty Acres,

Dingman Electrical Supply, Sno Flo Fabrics and Flag's Restaurant, which has supplied the sausage for the pancake supper. Quirk Road School is located at 46270 Ayres, Belleville.

'You're going to make me a Golden what?!'

By BOB COCHRANE
Editor of the Enterprise Roman

Want to do something different on a sunny Sunday afternoon?
How does this sound?
Does the thought of judging a bartenders' mixed drink contest turn you on?
Take it from me, it's pure delight and a welcome change of pace.
I was a judge—for the second year in a row—of the Second Annual Bartenders' Mixed Drink Contest conducted by Local 24 of the Hotel, Motel, Restaurant Employees, Cooks and Bartenders Union. The event was held Sunday at the Michigan Inn in Southfield.
I was joined in judging the liquid creations by another newspaper editor, two newspaper columnists, several television personalities, attorneys and judges, sales representatives and union leaders and other persons whose qualifications were much like mine—a fascination with the spirit world.
Last year we judges assembled at the Detroit Heritage Hotel, since closed and boarded up, and sipped a swath through some 20 mixed drinks. But we were provided only enough of each mixed drink for one or two sips and the total of all the concoctions consumed probably wouldn't have filled up one good-sized highball glass.
This year five judging stations were set up. Three of the stations sampled drinks produced by four contestants while the other two accommodated five entrants.

Each contestant made a whiskey sour and then put together an original drink. Each was judged on the basis of speed, item and personal appearance, presentation and taste.
Last year I sat a chair away from TV's amiable George Perriot, who advised my friend and me that munching soda crackers and sipping water between sampling drinks would clear the taste buds. He was absolutely correct.
George's sage advice apparently was transmitted to the promoters because this year baskets of crackers and containers of ice-cold water were strategically placed around the judges' tables.
Ten finalists were chosen from the 26 entrants. (Oddly enough only one contestant was female, although nine other female bartenders had been invited to participate but failed to appear.) The final 10 then prepared for a separate panel of judges their original mixed drinks. First-, second-, and third-place winners were selected and each received a trophy. The winning contestant also was awarded a huge traveling trophy on which his name will be inscribed. The trophy will remain in the winner's place of employment for a year until a new winner is chosen.
As in most mixed drink and wine tasting contests not enough spirits pass between the lips and into the blood stream to incapacitate anyone, although several judges did complain of "dizziness". However, that wore off by the time the buffet was served.

I was captivated by some of the names the bartenders assigned to their original drinks.
One bartender, as his creation, "The White Volcano," was being introduced, waved "bye-bye" to the judges, at which time one judge rose from his chair, shook hands with his neighbor and feigned an exit.
Another contestant employed pyrotechnics as he fashioned a Bicentennial contribution he dubbed the "Golden Torpedo." He had stuck several sparklers in the rear of a torpedo-like object reposing on a revolving tray and after lighting them, spun the tray around several times as the house lights were dimmed. His showmanship and the quality of his drink earned him a third-place trophy.
Other creations, aptly named in most cases, were introduced as the Russian Split, Peaches and Cream, St. George's Delight, Cafe Martinique, Buddy and the Iceberg.
Secretary-Treasurer Herb Triplett and his excellent staff at Local 24, which represents hundreds of hotel, motel and restaurant employees in western Wayne County, are to be commended for a most delightful program, one that was well-organized and is certainly headed for bigger and better things.

As we see it

Veterans' poppy program saved by Sen. Griffin

Veterans' organizations in Wayne, Westland, Belleville, Romulus and other Western Wayne County communities, as well as throughout the United States, have a real fighter on their side.
He's Michigan Sen. Robert P. Griffin who took on the federal bureaucracy—and won.

Earlier this year the Federal Civil Service Commission threatened to wipe out the poppy program by imposing minimum wage laws on hospitalized veterans who voluntarily assemble the familiar paper flowers.

The poppy program has been an American tradition since the First World War and has raised millions of dollars each year to benefit disabled veterans and their families.

At the request of the Veterans Administration, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Griffin introduced legislation, co-sponsored by 32 senators of both parties, that would have blocked imposition of the federal minimum wage laws.

Because of this legislation and Griffin getting involved personally, both the Civil Service Commission and the Veterans Administration have agreed to make important concessions so the poppy program can continue.

The compromise now makes the legislation unnecessary.

Griffin said the program will continue to be free of "suffocating governmental regulations."

It doesn't happen too often, but Sen. Griffin has managed to move a bureaucratic mountain.

Yule mail project aimed at armed forces overseas

To the editor:
Another Christmas season is rapidly approaching—the time of year we most enjoy being with family and friends. However, for many thousands of our fellow Americans this will be a very lonely Christmas; they cannot be with their families because they are stationed overseas with the United States armed forces. For a large number of these young men and women this will be the first Christmas away from home.

Your readers can help make this holiday season a little less lonely for many of these young people by joining in the collection of Christmas mail sponsored by Military Overseas Mail. This is an ideal project for school classes, clubs, scouts, and other groups or organizations as well as individuals and families. For more information, please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to MOM, Box 4428, Arlington, Va. 22204. Thank you.

As they see it

Says bottle bill has many unknowns

To the editor:

Have your readers asked their grocer which items he plans to discontinue if Proposal A is passed? Which his suppliers will discontinue? How they will handle can and plastic containers? If they plan to? How much area he will have to devote to handling and storage? The cost for energy to heat, light, and clean the area? Who will pay the cost for handling, storing, heating, lighting, cleaning, accounting, property tax, breakage, etc. Only two years are provided to make these many changes.

In view of the single business tax, can we afford to experiment and vote for Proposal A with its many unknowns and short phasing period?

My grocer said all low volume items (10-20 cases) will be discontinued—all canned items. It will mean a minimum of 10-15 percent increase in costs to pass on in higher prices. His suppliers are already earmarking many items as warehouse facilities will not be able to cope with returnable containers and expansion room is limited. Your readers may be as surprised as I was at which brands and items will go.

I talked with a state representative for Proposal A, and he stated this would be just a foot in the door for deposits on all containers. If it did create a hardship on industry, his group would work and vote for tax breaks to keep them in Michigan. Who pays and loses again? A senator informed me this will not affect whiskey and wine bottles as they are not refillable under Federal law. This affect will only be on beer, ale, or pop containers.

Sure the improper use of the disposable is a nuisance, but more so, the wire, metal, bags full of trash, and disposable diapers. Oh, man, they can get ripe.

In reading the actual law to be enacted, it can be found that the Liquor Control Commission becomes the overseer and will set standards. This is not mentioned on the ballot.

Sec. 1 (k) "Commission" means the Michigan liquor control commission.

Sec. 2 (1) A dealer shall not, within this state, sell, offer for sale, or give to consumers a nonreturnable container or a beverage in a nonreturnable container.

Sec. 2 (7) Every beverage container sold or offered for sale by a dealer within this state shall clearly indicate by embossing or by a stamp, or by a label or other method securely affixed to the beverage container, the refund value of the container and the name of this state. A dealer or distributor may, but is not required to, refuse to accept from a person an empty returnable container which does not state thereon the refund value of the container and the name of this state.

Sec. 2 (8) A dealer within this state shall not sell, offer for sale, or give to consumers a metal beverage container, any part of which becomes detached when opened.

Sec. 6 This act shall take effect two years after it becomes law.

Sure hope your readers can see by now I've done some research as they should do. I feel there is no way we can afford to vote "yes" on Proposal A. It is an expensive half-measure experiment that provides no real solution to a problem for which there are better alternatives more adaptable to our present system and with less clinkers. This law if adopted positively provides for more bureaucrats. Do we need them?

I hope your readers will do their research and vote "no" on November 2nd. Should Proposal A be turned down, I will forward to you some suggestions toward a better solution to the litter, ecology, recycling, energy, economy problems. I say again, the new law containing over 1,000 words, which is condensed to approximately 65 words for the ballot and referred to as Proposal A, does not measure up. We cannot afford this experiment and the additional bureaucracy it offers.

Voter approval of Proposition A urged

To the editor:

Proposition A, "the bottle bill," banning non-returnable bottles and cans, was attacked by Harry Hall in his column in last week's Eagle, and is under constant siege in TV and radio slots.

Aside from his sneers at conservationists, Hall's main points were that the switch to returnables would cause loss of jobs and repress freedom of choice. But Hall himself admits that he had a personal interest in a bottle manufacturing plant. His concern for job loss is ironic, for he usually represents the conservative school of business economics, characterized by the belief that spending lost in one area is directed to another (which is in fact what has happened within the beverage industry in other states). As for his contention that a ban on non-returnables limits freedom of choice—choice is limited now. There is only one supermarket in Wayne-Westland which carries returnable bottles (A&P). And what about the freedom of choice to live in a clean world?

Frankly I'm insulted by the TV and radio ads opposing Proposition A, for they appeal to little more than our laziness! They imply that the inconvenience of returning bottles will be insurmountable (ignoring the fact that until 10 years ago we all returned them. If you can carry bottles home, you can carry them to the store.). The ads also claim that the cost of beverages will increase sharply under the proposed law. Presently at A&P, an 8-pack of 16-oz. returnable bottles of coke is $1.59, while non-returnables are $1.89, and cans of smaller content run even higher. If costs of returnables increase, it will probably be to pay for these insulting ads.

Those opposing the bill also contend that the litter situation will not improve. Yes, some slobbs will continue to litter, but I predict that returnable bottles and cans will be picked up by children—or even adults—for the deposit money. The kids who now break glass all over the parks and playgrounds will likely be scrounging the bushes in hopes of collecting a little money.

But all the above points are insignificant beside the main and irrefutable argument that our resources are finite. It is nothing but irresponsible to simply toss away items made from and produced by these precious resources when they can be used again. Some of us can afford to pay a few extra pennies for the convenience of throwing our bottles away, but no one can afford to throw away our world. We've "deplored pollution" long enough; here's a positive way all of us can help in curbing its spread.

Ford's East Europe stand commended

To the editor:

This is an open letter to President Ford:

You have been quoted by the newspapers in your second debate as follows:

"There is no Soviet domination of Eastern Europe, ....."

Your statement has been seized upon by your opponent and many others in this country and others to ridicule you; but it is apparent they have missed the deeper and spiritual implications of your powerful words.

You stand on firm ground, for the scriptures tell us in the New Testament that we are not to fear those who can kill or destroy the body, but are not able to kill the soul.

Communism can control the body, freedom of press, freedom of religion and freedom of speech; and from time to time, as in Hungary, it can kill thousands of bodies, but it cannot kill the soul. From a spiritual aspect then, your statement on Eastern Europe is absolutely correct.

The Poles, Czechs, Ukrainians, etc. are basically a religious people and will continue so, even though they live in fear of physical or economic punishment.

In the darkest days of slavery, the blacks did not yield up their souls to their oppressors. The depth of the music they sang in those bitter days tells us so.

In the darkest days of Naziism, the Jews did not yield up their souls to their oppressors using gas chambers and guns. A proposed synagogue to be built in Farmington Hills by former concentration camp Jews tells us so.

In the bleak days of communism, the East Europeans have not yielded up their souls to oppression. The thunder of their silent cries for freedom tells us so.

President Ford—Stand firm!

Let not your assailants weaken your convictions. Keep America's beacon of light, hope and freedom burning brightly for the oppressed of all nations, until the day when the walls of tyranny come tumbling down over all the earth.

Emil J. Coolidge

Senator opposed to Proposal C

To the editor:

One of the most critical issues on the November ballot, will be Proposal C, which would limit all state taxes and spending to 8.3 percent of the combined personal income in Michigan.

I am opposed to this amendment because it will once again place an enormous tax burden primarily on the shoulders of the homeowner.

In recent years, Michigan residents have seen a trend where the state has been assuming more of the spending burden from local government. Since state spending would be frozen at present level, this shift of the tax burden would be required to cease.

In addition, the 8.3 percent limitation figure could very well be viewed as a maximum and not a minimum. It should be noted that only twice in the past 10 years has spending exceeded 8.3 percent. During the two years (1973-74) in which the limitation was surpassed, the state was in the midst of a recession, and therein lies the major flaw of the proposal.

Fiscal policies would be tightened during periods of recession, forcing budget cuts at a time when state services are needed the most. When income goes down, government spending must follow suit. This would severely restrict the state's ability to counteract the effects of a recession.

The liabilities of Proposal C far outweigh any projected benefits. If the reform of our present tax structure should come from a constitutional amendment such as this, the result will be unpredictable at best, and could not be rectified by either the legislative or executive branch.

Resident boycotting Belleville, Van Buren

To the editor:

Perhaps we should let Wayne County run Willow Run. If Van Buren is to have any say in the running of the airport look out for the worst to happen.

Belleville Lake is a prime example of how dictatorial a few big fish in a little pond can become.

The Department of Natural Resources cleans up the lake and purchases land for a boat ramp and fishing site. Then the bleeding hearts on the board of trustees hold up the boat ramp, post the lake against hunting and, in effect, act as if the lake was the private property of a few do gooders on the board.

One thing is for sure, I don't intend to spend my money for automobiles, food or clothing in Van Buren Township or the City of Belleville. For the past year 95 percent of my spendable income has been spent in the Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor area—a truck and new car bought in Ypsilanti this past year, and groceries purchased at Gault Village or Thrifty Acres.

I know that my boycotting will not drive anyone out of business, but then I'm not the only one who feels this way either.

Belleville

She favors capital punishment

To the editor:

Today I have just finished reading the article on the Taylor, Mich., couple who beat their three-year-old daughter to death after she was raped three times.

Now, I am wondering what is going to happen to these weirdoes. Some sharp lawyer will come along and plead temporary insanity, and after being put away for a short time they'll be right back out on the street to perhaps do the same thing again.

Also, I was reading a Detroit newspaper that stated that four of those beautiful Clydesdale horses were shot and one killed. What kind of people are running around loose anyway. They don't value any human life, even innocent animals.

I know I am going to hear some flak from people against capital punishment when I write these letters. I feel this is my way of expressing my opinion and mine alone. I would like to see capital punishment in this state. I also include this form of punishment for rapists. It's too late for that small child, but maybe not too late for future victims.

As Panax sees it

'Stay away from Scotch plaid, Jimmy'

By PATRICK J. BUCHANAN
New York Times News Service

WASHINGTON — "Ours is the party of a great-hearted Texan ... who went on to do more than any other president ... to advance the cause of human rights — Lyndon Johnson."

That warm tribute was contained with Mr. Carter's acceptance speech to the Democratic convention. During his recent monologue on adultery, however — which can be found midst the naked ladies of Playboy Magazine — Mr. Carter confided his belief that "great-hearted Texan ... Lyndon Johnson" engaged systematically in "lying, cheating and distorting the truth."

How the President's widow, Lady Bird Johnson, and the daughters feel about the Democratic candidate spitting on the grave of the late President, I do not know.

But a familiar pattern is there. Say one thing to your Playboy fans, another to the conservative Democrats. The play has been used too many times by Mr. Carter to be mere coincidence.

"I am a politician of principle," the late Senator Dirksen used to say, "and my first principle is flexibility." Mr. Carter's first principle seems to be to echo the prejudices of the particular audience he is addressing.

In the first and critical caucus state of Iowa, Mr. Carter won by letting Roman Catholics believe he was their anti-abortion champion. Now, he opposes their amendment. Political reporters dogging him in the early days found that, as Carter read out his roll call of American heroes, the name of Martin Luther King Jr. was invariably dropped when he crossed south of the Mason-Dixon line.

Early this year Carter disparaged the Republicans' revenue sharing program as a "fraud and a hoax." Now, he promises the mayors they can expect more of it.

Conceding the Jewish vote to Senator Jackson, Carter promised that, as president, he would "never send troops to defend Israel." With the nomination bagged, and the Jewish vote suddenly up for grabs, Carter urged to platform committee to call "for a clear and absolute commitment to insure Israel's security and survival as a Jewish state."

In his acceptance speech, he played the radical reformer, calling the U.S. tax code a "disgrace to the human race." Two weeks later, at Manhattan's posh Club 21, Jimmy told some nervous corporate chieftains not to worry; no tax reform would even be proposed until 1978. Talk to the businessmen of Georgia, he counseled; you will find I am a friend to business. Then, following his tax blunder, he was promising Democratic audiences that as president he would sock it to the "big corporations."

While Georgia's governor, he wrote to the National Right-to-Work Committee saying he opposed compulsory unionism. Nominated, he has promised George Meany he would gladly sign legislation wiping out right-to-work laws in 20 states, including Georgia.

During the primaries, he was skeptical of federal aid to New York City. Now he is Mayor Beame's bosom buddy, the champion of the Big Apple. He opposed Humphrey-Hawkins in the spring, until his "ethnic purity" crack raised liberal eyebrows. Then he embraced it with enthusiasm and fanfare. In the Texas primary he seemed the single candidate opposed to breaking up the oil companies. Now, he is running on a liberal platform that hints at both vertical and horizontal divestiture.

He preaches love and compassion. Then he savages Gerald Ford for not summarily firing in disgrace FBI director Kelley, simply because some government carpenter did some work in Kelley's home, when his wife was incapacitated and dying of cancer.

He milks the Ford pardon of Mr. Nixon for every ounce of political juice. Then, he pledges piously to heal our national wounds by pardoning the thousands of, draft-dodgers who ran away to Canada. In a shift to the right, he was saying nice things about the Burger Court.

When the rumbles started on his left, he backed away.

FDR used to tell the story about the fellow who owned the chameleon. When they put the chameleon down on a brown rug, it turned brown. When they put it down on a green rug, it turned green. Then someone went and put it down on a Scotch plaid, and the chameleon died.

Between now and November 2, Mr. Carter would be well advised to stay away from Scotch plaid.

Earl Butz —raw meat that bipartisan liberals lined up to devour

By JEFFREY ST. JOHN
Copley News Service

WASHINGTON — "This is the price I pay for a gross indiscretion in a private conversation," said Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz in resigning. "The use of a bad racial commentary in no way reflects my real attitude."

The furor over Butz's stupid statement concerning blacks shortly after the Republican National Convention is far more revealing than the actual blunder. Butz himself made the first mistake by his gross attempt at humor in the presence of John Dean. Having betrayed Richard Nixon over Watergate, Dean compounded this moral felony by moving from the "straight" political world of the Republican Party to the counter-culture New Left politics of Rolling Stone magazine, for which Dean has been working. Rolling Stone is the counter-culture New Left organ for Jimmy Carter.

Carter himself must have said a prayer of thanksgiving for Dean's Rolling Stone report and the later identification, by trendy left magazine New Times, of Butz as the source of the "racial slur." Dean did not name Butz, but his disclosure gave New Times the lead necessary to find out who was the source. As a result, Carter's sagging and staggering campaign has been saved by the stupidity of Butz and the amoral outlook of Dean. The focus has shifted from Carter's Playboy sexual slip of the lip to Butz's tart tongue and the damage it has done to the Ford campaign. Maybe God is on Carter's side after all!

The loser, however, is the American public. Both the Playboy furor and the Butz blunder further remove the focus of attention away from the respective candidate's position on issues. The press pounced on the Playboy piece and Butz's black humor like a starving pack of wolves. Both, indeed, were journalistic red meat after a bland vegetarian diet served up by Mr. Ford and Mr. Carter.

Perhaps the most revealing aspect of the Butz affair was the source of the demands for his immediate resignation. It was a bi-partisan pack of Republican and Democratic liberals who have long wanted some political raw meat they could devour. The Butz beef was Grade A Prime.

For the Democratic liberals it gave them an emotional issue to save Carter from himself. For the Republican liberals like Sen. Edward Brooke (Mass.) and Sen. Jacob Javits (N.Y.) it was a way of asserting themselves after being humiliated at the Republican convention and their failure to influence either Ford or a conservative platform to a more liberal direction. The liberal Republicans' demand for party unity from the conservatives, after Ronald Reagan's defeat, has now given way to attacks on their own presidential candidate. Constant is the inconsistency of the liberal Republicans.

Perhaps the greatest hypocrisy of all were the gross accusations leveled against Butz after his stupid statement. It was alleged, for example, that Butz's black humor somehow expressed an underlying racism. Robert Shrim, the New Times reporter who fingered Butz, and White-House correspondent Philip Shabecoff, for the New York Times, made this accusation to this columnist in a TV talk show here. Asked to cite a history of racial remarks by Butz, they could not. Clinging to convictions without evidence is a time-honored talent of liberals in this town.

The reaction to the Butz stupidity and its opportunistic use by the liberal politicians and press reveals in a concrete way what most Americans seem to perceive in a vague way about Washington. It is also why most Americans are so disgusted with politics and pray November will come and go quickly.

Politicians in this town make many a moralizing sermon about the people and the public, yet their business is conducted with shabby contempt for the intelligence and perception of most Americans, who are deeply disgusted by the vague feeling that the government here is in the hands of fools playing at being moral and wise.

The Butz affair is the most recent illustration. The monetary and fiscal short-changing of the public by both political parties in this town is an accepted fact by most Americans. Now the taxpayer is being asked not only to stand still while his pocket is picked by the politicians, but also to believe that their conduct over the Butz affair is high-minded moral leadership instead of an obscene illustration of how moronic our politics and politicians have become. Profiting from political stupidity is its own form of stupidity.

At St. Louis Church of the Nazarene

Candlelight sets mood for Bender-Sala rite

Beverly Sue Bender, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Bender of St. Louis, Mich., became the bride of Raymond James Sala, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sala of Belleville, in a recent candlelight ceremony.

Held at St. Louis Church of the Nazarene, the double ring rite was conducted by The Rev. James A. Adams. Altar appointments consisted of white candelabras and two white bird cages adorned with flowers and greenery with a live white dove in each.

As guests assembled, Mrs. Nancy Stump, organist, along with her daughter, Cindy, on the clarinet, played a program of bridal music. The ceremony began at 6 p.m. with Ron Stump singing "Lord, Bless This Hour." He and Mrs. Stump later sang "The Joy of Love," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Each for the Other."

Lynn Sacuto of Weeki Wachee, Fla.; Renee Hochradel of Ann Arbor, a college friend of the bride; Sylvia Sala of Belleville, the bridegroom's sister; Carol Bender of Davenport, Iowa, sister-in-law of the bride, and Cheri Brauhar of Breckenridge, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaids.

As "Trumpet Voluntary" was played, they were escorted up the aisle by groomsmen James Stewart and Greg Ratz, both of Florida; Gary St. Cyr of Belleville and Murill Bender of Davenport, Iowa, and Brian Bender of St. Louis, brothers of the bride.

Arloune Kibbie of Ann Arbor was her sister's matron of honor. All six attendants appeared in gowns of apricot polyester knit styled in the A-line mode with V-necklines and chiffon capelets accented with lace appliques and back-of-the-neck ties. They carried wicker birdcage baskets filled with variegated baby mums with a white dove in the foreground of each. Circlets of matching blooms were worn in their hair.

Best man was Larry McMillen of Ypsilanti. Ushers were Murill Bender and Greg Ratz.

As her aunt's flowergirl, Tammie Lynn Kibbie donned a long frock identical to the senior attendants' and carried a wicker basket of mums. Trainbearers in similar attire were Kristin Joy Bender and Michelle Ann Kibbie, also nieces of the bride. Jeffrey Todd Kibbie filled the role of ringbearer at his aunt's wedding.

As "Wedding Processional" was sounded on the organ, the bride entered the aisle with her father who gave her in marriage. She wore an ivory gown of nylon organza over taffeta designed with an A-line skirt embroidered with lace, seed pearls and crystal beads which swept into a chapel train. The empire bodice featured a high neckline, short sleeves and a sheer yoke all enhanced with the same jeweled detail.

Her cathedral-length veil of nylon illusion drifted from a semi-Camelot headpiece frosted with crystals and pearls. Completing her bridal finery was a cascade bouquet of apricot sweetheart roses, baby's breath and orchids.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bender chose a green floral print gown with a matching floor-length cape of chiffon. The bridegroom's mother donned a sky blue doubleknit gown with a companion jacket. Both were presented corsages of apricot rosebuds.

Also honored with corsages were the bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Ena Kitzinger of Millington and Mrs. Ethel Bender.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Monroe was the setting Sept. 24 for the evening ceremony which united Roxey Kay Shattuck of Belleville and Donald J. Boudrie Jr. of Monroe in holy matrimony.

The senior attendants donned blue and green gowns and white picture hats and carried bouquets of white daisies.

Thomas Elden West of Monroe was asked to be best man and David Kazimer was usher.

At the reception which followed at the AFL-CIO Hall in Monroe, the 150 guests were greeted by Mrs. Shattuck in a floor-length red polyester gown. The bridegroom's mother chose to wear a beige formal gown. Both were honored with corsages of white carnations.

The newlyweds spent a 2-day honeymoon in Ohio and now are making their home in Fayetteville, N.C. near Fort Bragg where PFC Boudrie is serving with the U.S. Army.

The new Mrs. Boudrie is a 1975 graduate of Belleville High School. Her husband attended Monroe High School and was employed as a service station attendant in Monroe prior to entering the armed forces.

Dotson-Barker say vows in Oct. 9 rite

Candlelight service as the backdrop for the Oct. 9 nuptial rite of Beverly Ann Dotson and William P. Barker at the United Methodist Church of Flat Rock.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dotson of South Huron River Drive, Flat Rock, wore a princess-style gown with scoop neckline and long sleeves, trimmed in lace, made by her mother. Made of satin peau and re-embroidered alencón lace, the gown was accented by a train, also of alencón lace, and a 9-foot long veil trimmed with lace. A cascade of gardenias and stephanotis completed the bridal outfit.

Given in marriage by her father, the ceremony was officiated by the Rev. R. Carter before 250 guests. Music for the rite was performed by the bride's grandmother, Marie Thompson, and sung by Peggy Taylor.

The bride asked Claudia Underwood of Flat Rock to act as her maid of honor, while Mrs. Bonnie Sell, her sister, served as the matron of honor.

Both wore navy blue gowns of quiana knit, with empire waists and short sleeves. Their headpieces were of daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids for the early evening ceremony were Mrs. Michele Dotson, sister-in-law of the bride, of South Rockwood and Janet Scheel of Flat Rock. Their gowns were styled after the honor attendants, but in red quiana knit. They wore similar headpieces.

The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barker of Riverton, N. J., asked Steve Ward of Ferndale to act as his best man. The ushers were Daniel Sell, bride's brother-in-law, of Lawrence, Bob Dotson, brides brother, of South Rockwood, Brian Dotson, bride's brother, of Flat Rock, James Barker, groom's brother, of Dallas, Tex., and Dave Kennedy of Ann Arbor.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Dotson wore a light blue, shirtwaist dress of jersey knit and organza. The dress was accented with long sleeves and a full skirt. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mrs. Barker chose a light blue, empire-waist knit dress with long sleeves and wore a corsage of white roses for the nuptial rite.

A reception for the 250 guests was held at Biddle Hall in Wyandotte.

A rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Barker for 25 guests at Sir George's Steak House in Taylor, prior to the wedding.

The newlyweds honeymooned in California for 12 days before returning to their new home in Flat Rock.

The new Mrs. Barker is a 1971 graduate of Airport High School and a 1973 graduate of Monroe County Community College. Her husband is a graduate of Lawrenceville School and a 1973 graduate of Lehigh University. He is employed by the Great Lakes Steel Corp. of Ecorse.

INFORMATION CENTER FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

We have had many requests individually for information and literature about services available to our community's senior citizens. It has forced us to seek out material about Social Security, old age and survivor's benefits, VA claims, insurance-processing, wills, retirement-planning and other subjects too numerous to mention here.

What we seem to have become is a central point from which senior citizens (or anyone else for that matter) may receive pamphlets, reading lists, and even free advice on "where to find it" for all manner of important data.

We are available sometimes for speaking before your groups on these subjects and others pertaining to funerals. In these roles, we are pleased to make whatever information we have available to you. If you have a question particularly regarding old age and veteran's benefits, we'll try to help you get the answers you need. There's a wide range of source material, some of which we have and others we can help you locate.

This is one of a series of brief articles we hope will be helpful. You may ask us questions privately or publicly through this newspaper.

County puts $10,000 to consumer-utility fight

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners has appropriated $10,000 to help defend county consumers in pending rate cases involving the Detroit Edison Co. and the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

The commissioners also directed the Office of Corporation Counsel to come up with a recommendation that would put a ceiling on the utility bills of retired senior citizens.

Both actions taken at the Oct. 7 board meeting, were the result of a March resolution in which the Board of Commissioners decided to challenge public utility rate increase requests on behalf of the consumer.

That resolution was sponsored by Commissioners John Trelly of Trenton, George Hart of Dearborn and Rose Mary C. Robinson of Detroit.

The $10,000 appropriation was requested by the Corporation Counsel to provide utility expert witnesses in the upcoming rate cases before the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC).

Concerned with the plight of residents living on fixed incomes, the board instructed the Corporation Counsel to research and prepare a recommendation to the MPSC "to fix maximum rates" that would have to be paid by retired persons.

The board said the recommendation should relate "to a percentage of income equated to the average cost per person of the general population of rate payers in the state."

In addition the chairman of the board was empowered to join law suits by the City of Detroit and the Michigan Association of Counties on behalf of utility consumers.

In a letter, dated Sept. 2, to the board, the Corporation Counsel advised:

"Since the board's resolution was passed, this office has taken a more active role in participating in rate increases requested by the utilities serving Wayne County at the MPSC.

"However, presently the City of Detroit has curtailed some of its activity in the utilities area and is no longer participating in the sharing of those expert fees, leaving that cost to be shared by the county and the state.

If the $10,000 cannot cover both cases, the attorneys said they would concentrate on the Detroit Edison case.

Commissioner Richard E. Manning of Redford, chairman of the board's General Government Committee, also urged that the "board advise our legislators of the need for adequate funding of expert witnesses."

In other action, the board concurred with its Public Safety and Judiciary Committee's recommendation to file for Law Enforcement Assistance Act (LEAA) grants for Management and Improvement programs for Circuit and Recorder's courts, positive detention care and productivity programs for Juvenile Court, a Wayne County Sheriff Jailor, Training Program and a Prosecutor's Victim Witness Assistance Program.

Bond Day to assist Baptist Church

The Bond Rally Sunday has been planned for Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church of Ypsilanti.

During the Sunday services this weekend, members of the congregation will be able to purchase bonds in $100, $250, $500, $1,000 and $5,000 denominations, with interest rates of 8½ percent, 9 percent and 9½ percent.

Two types of bonds are being offered to refinance bonds issued when the church and educational facilities was first constructed at 1007 Ecorse Road. Available are coupon bonds in which interest is, paid every six months until the bond matures or compound interest bonds in which interest accumulates and compounds semi-annually and is paid at maturity, increasing the yield.

Founders Alliance Corp. is assisting the church with the bonding program.

The contest has been going on during the preliminary promotion for the sale. Prizes will be given out for the winning posters on Sunday. Also to be honored will be the best slogan in connection with the bonding program.

To help promote the bond rally will be the judging of a poster contest by children ages 9 through 12 years.

For further information on the Bond Rally Day contact the church at 482-1990.

Center's search covers anatomy

A new demonstration program, "Subsearch: A Trip Through the Human Body," highlights the activities and exhibits slated for this fall at the free Detroit Science Center, located at 52 E. Forst.

Taking a simulated voyage through the systems and organs of the human body, visitors will see electron microscope enlargements of such phenomena as the complex inner ear and the movement of blood cells. The use of a strobe light will help science voyagers believe they've shrunk to the size of microbes for the 60,000-mile trip through the valves and arteries of the healthy body.

Developed as a part of the Detroit Science Center's participation in the recent Ford Foundation grant, the program was conceived by Dr. Thomas Burford of the University of Buffalo, N.Y., and John Ryan, exhibit coordinator for the Detroit Science Center.

Group reservations may be made for the demonstration program "Subsearch" by calling 833-1892.

Nature centers open for tours by students

Teachers in schools located in Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw counties now have an opportunity to schedule their classes for a visit to one of three nature centers of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA). The HCMA Nature Centers include Stony Creek Metropark near Utica, Kensington Metropark near Milford, and Oakwoods Metropark near Flat Rock.

A nature center appointment gives the class and teacher use of the exhibit room. When appointments are scheduled, teachers should suggest a lecture topic which is suited to the current classroom studies.

Call 961-5865 for information and appointments.

River sampling aids water quality planning

Sampling currently is underway on the Huron River as part of a $5.1 million program by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) to develop a water quality management plan for the seven counties of southeast Michigan.

The river basin survey, which is being performed under contract by the Environmental Research Group of Ann Arbor, will help water quality planners see what changes take place in the quality of water as it flows from the headwaters of the Huron River to its mouth near the Pointe Mouille State Game Area in Monroe County.

"The sampling program is essential to the Council of Governments' water quality modelling effort," said Edward J. Hustoles, SEMCOG environmental program manager. "Modelling will allow us to test the effectiveness of different water pollution control plans by feeding a computer varying data and hypothetical conditions."

River basin surveys will be conducted on three river basins in southeast Michigan. In the Huron River basin survey, water samples will be taken from 19 different locations every three hours throughout a 72-hour period that began at 12 a.m. Oct. 10.

In addition to testing that will take place at each sampling site, all samples will be tested for 15 factors affecting water quality at the Environmental Research Group's Ann Arbor laboratories.

The river basin surveys, along with surveys of several lakes and small watersheds in the 7-county area, will provide the most complete water quality data about the region ever compiled.

A survey of the Clinton River was completed last month, and a survey of the Rouge River basin will be conducted later this fall.

SEMCOG is a voluntary association of governmental units within Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne counties. In addition to planning for water quality, the Council prepares long-range plans for transportation, housing, land use, criminal justice sewer, water and storm drainage.

'HELP-UR-SELF' receives funds

Wayne County Community College's (WCCC) Community Services Division has received $61,000 in Title I money from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to implement its HELP-UR-SELF Project-Harvesting Elderly Learners Productivity for Unemployed-Retired Via Skills Education for Leadership.

The project is aimed at the more than 496,000 senior citizens, 55 years and over, living in Wayne County, with specific emphasis on those with low income and the racially or ethnically isolated. The purpose of the project is to mobilize and train the elderly for self-help, thereby taking up some of the slack in direct services caused by budget cutbacks.

The project is being headed by Branda F. McGadney, former director of the City of Detroit Senior Citizen Department Information and Referral Project.

An open house for HELP-UR-SELF will be held from 3:30 to 5:30

Oct. 27 in the Community Services Division Office, 4612 Woodward, Detroit. For further information call 832-4750.

Football fanfare

Halftimes wouldn't be halftimes if there weren't marching bands and a recap of the first two quarters of football, and members of the Belleville High School band have been keeping with the spirit of halftimes in putting their best musical note forward. The bandsmen, however, are looking forward to this Friday evening, when they will "strut their stuff" in hopes that the gridiron team will come out victors in the school's annual homecoming game.—Photos by ANP Chief Photographer Lothar E. ## Title, playoff berth at stake

This is it—Wayne, Parkers clash

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

There is no question what is going on behind the football scenes at Wayne Memorial High School this week.

Sure, it's Homecoming Friday night. And with it there's plenty of pageantry.

However, you can bet that all of head Coach Floyd Carter and his staff's energies will be directed toward one goal:

BEAT LINCOLN PARK.

For Lincoln Park's Railsplitters stand in unbeaten Wayne's path of a Great Lakes 8 Conference title season.

Equally important, Lincoln Park, undefeated in five outings this season, also could be the key to a Michigan High School Athletic Association playoff berth in Region II.

The winner of Friday night's confrontation between Wayne and Lincoln Park will receive 126 bonus points which will carry them to the top of the Region II listing.

Sports

Both teams will enter the contest with 4-0 league records and are two victories up on their nearest rivals.

"In order to beat Lincoln Park

we're going to have to play our best game of the season," said Carter. "Lincoln Park is one of the best teams we will face this year - we won't be able to afford any mistakes.

"And we're going to need to play four quarters of football," Carter added.

Lincoln Park's attack is centered around fullback Curtis Martell who works as a linebacker on defense. The team is run by quarterback Steve Toigo.

"They have a lot of balance and are well-coached," Carter pointed out, "it's going to be one heck of a ball game."

Wayne received some good news earlier in the week. All-conference center Jim Prieskorn, a 6-3, 205-pound senior who was injured last Friday in Wayne's 12-7 triumph over Wyandotte will be available for action on Friday.

Prieskorn suffered a concussion and a leg injury at Wyandotte.

Typical of how they have played all year, Wayne needed a second half rally to put down an upset-minded Wyandotte contingent on a cold Friday night.

But it was Wayne which got on the scoreboard first as quarterback Pat Bledsoe put together a 67-yard drive that ate up eight minutes of the first quarter and ended with the senior QB tossing six yards to Tim Clark for a touchdown.

The 15-play drive featured some excellent runs by Brett Hansen who picked up 19 yards in three carries, and Bledsoe realized a 23-yarder on a third down situation.

Wayne's Mike Paz failed to get the extra point as the Bruins blocked the kick.

Wyandotte came back with the ensuing kickoff and marched 54 yards in five plays and scored on Dave Cassel's 34-yard run to tie the game. Tom Sekmistrz' boot for the extra point put the Bruins up by one, 7-6.

Wayne attempted to erase that deficit when it maneuvered into field goal position midway in the second half. Paz tried a 46-yarder after a

Belleville shares League lead

Happy homecoming, Tigers

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

It'll be a happy Homecoming for Belleville football fans Friday night. Off to its best start in recent years, Belleville has a four-game Suburban 8 Conference winning streak and a share of the league lead to offer its followers who have suffered through a long title drought.

And Coach Pat Stokes' gridders aren't expected to encounter much difficulty from Redford Union, the Tigers' Friday night opponent.

Redford Union is still looking for its first victory of the 1976 campaign. However, Stokes warned that R.U. can knock off anyone in this league.

"They gave Edsel Ford a heck of a time, losing 19-12," said Stokes. "And Edsel is among the top-ranked teams in the region and state."

"We're not going to underestimate them, no way," he added.

Stokes was pleased with his team's over-all performance at Livonia Bentley, a team that succumbed to the Tigers 40-8. Bentley averted the shutout in the final minutes of the game when the Bulldogs scored on Pat McKay's nine-yard run.

But the game was over by then. Belleville built up a 14-0 halftime margin, added a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter and struck for two more in the final 12 minutes of the game.

All-Area halfback Kevin Barnes continued to supply Belleville's TD power. Barnes scored the Tigers' first three touchdowns, going in from the one and three in the second quarter and racing 66-yards early in the third.

Sophomore Kelvin Patterson got Belleville's other third quarter TD on a 46-yard run while Harold Dennis, on a one-yard lunge, and Ray Paponetti, who dove into the end zone from four-yards out, accounted for the Tigers' fourth quarter scores.

Belleville, which has been looking for a kicker, apparently had found one in Jeff Bramble who successfully converted four of the six extra-pointers.

As expected, Belleville had the edge in first downs, 14-7, and had an overwhelming 388 rushing yards - 166 of those contributed by Barnes and 110 by Patterson. However, the Tiger aerial game was 0-3 while Bentley scored on four of 15 passes for 61-yards. The Bulldogs had 125 yards rushing.

Larry Pingston got his first start at quarterback but senior Tom Laine is expected to be back for regular duty Friday night.

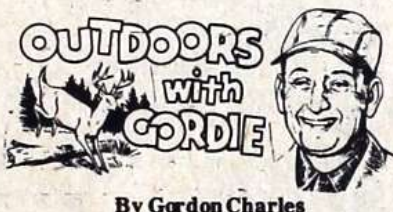

Mark Cornett also contributed 51 yards in nine carries, 50 in the first half alone.

Belleville's Dennis intercepted a Bentley pass which he turned into a 50-yard run, three-yards shy of a touchdown. That run set up the Tigers' second TD. Dave Lundell and Roy Rutherford, both ends, shut-down Bentley's sweeps.

Stokes and his staff Friday will probably be awaiting a messenger from Dearborn where once-defeated Dearborn Edsel is hosting cross-town rival Edsel Ford in a key league showdown.

An Edsel loss and a Belleville victory over Redford Union would give Stokes' Tigers sole possession of first place.

Hunters who headed out in hot pursuit of ruffed grouse when the season opened Sept. 15 in the northern two-thirds of Michigan, may be all "hunted out" by this stage of the game. If you fall into this category, maybe you better consider a few pertinent facts.

Wildlife biologists tell us that even in good hunting years, somewhere between 15 and 30 percent of the state grouse population never see a single human hunter. Sort of makes you stop and think, doesn't it? The conclusion to be drawn is that most hunters are not getting off the roads far enough to find the birds.

Another hint comes from an old grouse hunting friend who never really begins to hunt partridge until late in the season. This guy is referred to as a "crick bottom man," which is a tip-off to his secret.

Generally, he takes his hunting vacation sometime after October 20. He knows by that time many hunters are off chasing pheasants in southern Michigan and the woodlands will probably be peaceful and quiet. The main reason, though, has to do with the fact that grouse have usually been drive out of the hills then by rough weather. They naturally head into the creek bottoms.

This concentrates the grouse again even though they are in rather heavy cover. Often they seek the cedars which are both thick and tough to hunt. But the number of birds in one spot serves to even things up a bit. Shooting is not impossible, even though it takes an alert hunter to bag many birds under these conditions.

Along the edges of many of these creek bottoms you can occasionally find old logging roads. If so, you are really in business because the birds will come out of the heavy stuff on warm days to sun themselves and you at least have an opening in which to shoot.

During the season which runs up to the beginning of deer season in mid-November, grouse can also be driven. Given the right situation, even a few birds can provide a lot of shooting. Long, narrow swamps snaking through hardwood hills are an ideal set-up for three men to hunt.

One goes through the middle and the others guard the edges as they move along on a parallel path.

A grouse which is then flushed will often provide a shot for somebody. If not, or if the shot is missed, the bird will probably keep on flying ahead in the swamp and can often be jumped three or four times. This makes for a lot of shooting, even with a few birds, and livens up what might otherwise be a rather dead day.

Perhaps this latter method might sound a bit unsporting to those who have never hunted ruffed grouse. If so, forget it. A grouse is nobody's fool at any time. In fact, he will often put you in that exact position and leave you feeling like one. He absolutely refuses to be pushed in any one direction unless he feels like going there. Just as often he will swing back the other way and elude you entirely in the heavy cover. But that kind of frustration just adds to this fascinating bird's attraction.

Canton gridders have 2 more chances to end league skid

Plymouth Canton has two more chances to win a Western Six Conference football game for its rookie head Coach Dave Schuele.

The Chiefs blew an excellent opportunity of winning their first league game of the season last Saturday when they let winless Walled Lake Western slip from their mitts 27-12.

Now they'll have to face Northville (Saturday) or get by Livonia Churchill (Oct. 29) if they want to elude the conference basement.

Northville is the tougher of the two assignments.

"Looking at our scouting reports, Northville had everything," Schuele said. "They look awesome, in fact, we don't have an easy one this year."

Canton and Western exchanged second quarter touchdowns with Walled Lake getting on the boards first on a one-yard lunge by Kirk Folsom. The Chiefs helped out by fumbling on their own 30-yard line, setting up the TD.

Huron cross country meet set

The New Boston Track Club will hold its second cross country meet of the season on Saturday at Willow Metro Park in New Boston.

Competition will begin at 11 a.m. and participants will be allowed to walk the course at 10:30 a.m.

Competition is open to boys and girls, ages six and under, who will compete in a one-mile run; 10-12 year old boys and girls who will race 1 1/2 miles and 13-15 who will compete over a two-mile course.

There is a 16 and over division that will run two miles.

Registration, which will be accepted beginning at 8:30 a.m., will be held at the starting line. There is a $1.50 registration fee.

Trophies will be awarded to the first 10 finishers in each division and trophies will go to the 11th through 20th place finishers. There also will be ribbons.

Further information may be obtained by telephoning Jim Rosseau at 675-1568.

Romulus harriers place 4th

Romulus ran fourth in a field of five teams at the third annual Dearborn Heights Crestwood Invitational Cross Country Meet held Saturday in Edward Hines Parkway. Garden City City East, the defending champ, ran away with the title, compiling 35 team points en route to its second straight championship. East is also the defending Northwest Suburban Conference champ.

Crestwood's Tim Barr won individual honors as he covered the three mile terrain in 15:12.

3 double winners lift Glenn past Wayne

Propelled by three double winners, Westland John Glenn girl's swimming team emerged atop of a 96-76 decision over cross-district rival, Wayne Memorial.

Coach Jean Garbus's Rockets swept eight of the 11 events en route to the nonleague victory. The win evened up the Westlanders' over-all record to 2-2 on the season. They'll see Northwest Suburban Conference action Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at North Farmington.

Colleen Rehahn put the 200-yard freestyle event in Glenn's win column when she stroked a 2:21.2, then contributed the 100-yard butterfly via a 1:11.6 effort. She was also a member of Glenn's 400-yard freestyle relay team that posted a 4:28.0 victory.

Jody Garbus, the coach's daughter, chalked up a victory in the 100-yard freestyle (1:03.0) and churned a 1:20.5 in claiming the 100-yard breaststroke.

Laurie Grogg finished first in the 50-yard freestyle (29.2) and the 100-yard backstroke (1:15.5) for the Westlanders.

Wayne had a 1-2 punch on the diving boards with Teri Richardson (180.45) and Lisa Perkins (150.50) and also won the 200-yard individual medley thanks to Teri Discher's efforts.

Miss Discher was clocked in 2:50.9, edging Glenn's Daena Noel at the finish line.

Franklin bids for 13th grid victory over Glenn

Northwest Suburban co-leaders meet on Saturday

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Triskaidekaphobia is described as the fear of the number 13. And, unfortunately for Westland John Glenn, and fortunately for Livonia Franklin, Coach Armend Vigna isn't superstitious.

Vigna and Livonia Franklin have beaten Westland John Glenn football teams 12 consecutive times and the 13th meeting, set for Saturday at 2 p.m. at Franklin, should determine which team will wear the Northwest Suburban Conference crown.

"I'm not superstitious," admits Vigna as he prepares his Patriots for the crucial game. "I believe in prayer - not superstitions. The number 13 doesn't mean much - we're going to play an excellent Glenn team and we're going to do everything we can to beat them."

Franklin, 2-0 in the league, is seeking an unprecedented fourth consecutive Northwest Suburban Conference title.

Glenn has beaten the three other league rivals - Garden City East, Thurston and North Farmington - and is only one victory away from its first outright conference title. The Rockets shared the championship six years ago.

But Coach Jerry Lutri's Rockets have more at stake. If they can stop Franklin and win their next three games, they will have a shot at the Region II Michigan High School Athletic Association post-season playoff spot.

Franklin, the defending Class A state champ, is out of the running this year by virtue of two nonleague losses earlier in the campaign.

"Needless to say, we respect Franklin football teams and their coaching staff," said Lutri. "They have an excellent tradition and this year's team is as good as any. Even though they have lost two games, they are tougher than nails."

"Our kids know we haven't beaten them in 12 years and they'll be out to break the jinx."

Glenn stretched its winning streak to nine-games Friday night by coming from behind to beat North Farmington 24-14 before a Homecoming crowd estimated at 5,000 fans.

The victory cost the Westlanders another streak, however. It was the first time in 26 quarters that a team had scored on them.

"It was bound to happen sooner than later," Lutri said. "We're sort of happy it's over with, the pressure is off the team."

North Farmington drew first blood as the Raiders scored with 1:06 to spare in the first quarter on a pass from quarterback Mark Thompson to Tim Quinn which covered three-yards.

Quinn kicked the extra point. A Glenn fumble, which popped into the hands of Thompson at the Rocket 30-yard line, set up the North

TD. It took 13 plays for Glenn to get on the scoreboard.

Cliff Williams got the ensuing kickoff and made it to the Glenn 26-yard line where quarterback Bill Lee began the TD drive. Jeff Preston made it to the 28, then North lined up off-sides advancing the ball to the 33-yard line as the quarter ended.

Preston, Mike Holton and Jerry Cook then churned out four first downs as the Rockets marched to the North two-yard line where an off-side penalty against Glenn stalled the drive temporarily. Then, with 8:11 left in the quarter Preston scampered around right end into the end zone.

However, Mark Grabowski's attempt for the extra point failed, leaving the Rockets behind 7-6.

Tom Jurewicz gave the Westlanders their next break. After the Raiders had the ball for three plays, Jurewicz intercepted a first down deflected pass at the North 46-yard line.

Eight plays later, which included a 10-yard pass to Mark Scikorski, Glenn was at the North 15 yard line where Preston scored his second of three TD's of the evening.

Preston also made it through the Raider lines for the two-point conversion, lifting Glenn into the lead for the first time in the game 14-7.

With 3:18 left to the intermission, Glenn mobilized its third threat which ended in an unsuccessful 36-yard field goal attempt by Grabowski.

Glenn and North exchanged second half touchdowns: Preston culminated a four-play mid-field drive with a 11-yard touchdown run, stepping over and on several North defenders en route to the end zone.

That TD was set up by a superb over-the-shoulder pass reception by Grabowski from Lee which covered 37-yards. Grabowski also made good

Deadlocked

John Glenn quarterback Bill Lee (dark jersey) is tied up by a North Farmington defender during Friday night's Northwest Suburban Conference game. Lee led his Rockets to a stunning 24-14 victory over the Raiders which lifted the Westlanders into sole possession of first place in the league. Glenn places a nine-game winning streak and the league lead on the block Saturday when it travels to Livonia Franklin, the defending Class A state and league champ.

Cougars sweep 2 from Westland

With the freshmen team setting the tone of the afternoon, the Belleville Cougars took two of three games from the Westland Meteors recently in little league football.

The freshmen, led by Ron Smolen and Mike Beckley, shut out the Cougars 13-0.

Smolen scored on a 12-yard run in the first quarter while Beckley capped a drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge. John Dillon accounted for the extra point.

The Meteors managed to give the Cougar junior varsity a battle. Belleville got on the scoreboard first when quarterback Tom LeBlanc hooked up with Sam Villa on a scoring 27-yard touchdown pass.

LeBlanc sneaked over the goal line to score the conversion, giving Belleville a 7-0 lead. However, the Meteors came back and scored a touchdown to cut into the Cougars lead 7-6.

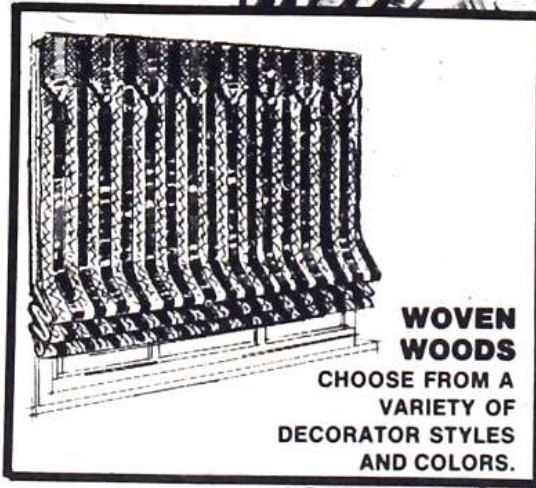

Belleville widened the gap in the fourth period when Jeff Zavadil scored the final touchdown of the game.

The Cougar victory over the Westlanders proved costly as Joey Johnston sustained a neck injury and was rushed to the hospital.

The Westland Varsity unit however averted a Belleville sweep as they emerged atop of a 18-7 score. The Meteors struck early as they put two TDs on the board before the Cougars scored what proved to be their lone TD of the game.

on the extra point, giving the Rockets a wider 21-7 margin to protect.
North didn't quit, however. The Raiders made a game of it in the fourth quarter when a 34-yard pass from Thomas to Thompson gave them their second touchdown of the evening.

Quinn, younger brother of Dan Quinn, former Livonia Franklin and All-Area griddler who is starting at slotback at Wayne State, kicked the extra point, closing the gap to 21-14 with more than seven minutes left in the game.

However, Glenn controlled the game from there-in, eating up more than seven minutes in its next series with the use of 17 plays. They drove from the 27-yard line after the ensuing kickoff to the 12 where, on a fourth down and eight situation, Lutri called upon Grabowski for a 29-yard field goal.

Grabowski found the target, giving the Rockets three big points and leaving North with only 2:01 to retaliate. In North's next series, Grabowski sacked the quarterback twice for huge losses as the game ended on North's 46-yard line.
Preston accounted for more than half of Glenn's rushing yardage as he compiled 163 yards on 30 carries, including three TDs. The senior halfback now has 11 touchdowns on the season.

Congratulations

This is it for Wayne

penalty moved the Wolfpack from the 24 back to the 29. Paz' kick was high and long enough but it was also wide of the uprights.

Roy Smith, who scored on a spectacular 100-yard kickoff return last year for Wayne, came up with the heroics that proved to be the difference in the ball game.

Smith returned the third quarter kickoff 77-yards to score Wayne's second TD of the game.

Three times in the second half Wayne defenders were called upon to squelch serious Wyandotte threats. The Bruins made it to the Wayne 11, 14 and were at the 20 on three separate occasions but were stopped by the defense fired up by Bob Lusk, Ed Leverenz and Chris Eberhart.

Lusk, a back-up center, was forced into action after Prieskorn's injury and played both ways. As a linebacker he had five initial hits and four assists, second only to Ed Leverenz' defensive performance. Ed finished with nine solos and two assists.

AUTO FACTS

By Chester Kosin

Keep your car's gasoline tank filled in the summer time, in order to minimize wasteful evaporation of fuel while the car stands in the hot sun. It turns out that evaporation is greater in a tank that is half empty, so keeping the tank full saves gasoline. The same is true of winter. If you keep the tank full in winter, you avoid condensation of moisture in the gasoline, and possible freezing of this water in the fuel line.

Do it - yourself mechanics are invited to visit KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan, Inkster, for the parts and materials you need to winterize your foreign or domestic car. We feature everything you need to keep your car running at its best. Our friendly, knowledgeable staff will be happy to help to select the proper parts for your particular car. (If the job to be done is too complicated and you need help, bring your car to your local service station or garage for professional service.) KOSIN'S also offers full machine shop service. Stop in any day from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M., or Saturdays until 5 P.M. Call us at 563-3894. Master Charge and Bank Americard are honored.

HANDY HINT: Never fill the gasoline to the brim of the neck in the summer; expansion from heat could cause the gas to overflow.

Saginaw is Romulus' homecoming opponent

Scores can be deceptive. Like the one that appeared in a metropolitan newspaper on Saturday which read: Romulus 6, Toledo 0.

It was a typo, unfortunately. Toledo had won 6-0. "They won it," said Romulus Coach Tom Baldwin. "But, let me say this I felt we definitely played our best ball game of the season."

"Toledo is a real fine ball club and is presently 3-2 in the Triple AAA League. We played an inspired game against them," Baldwin added.

Toledo DeVilbiss broke a scoreless drought with 13 seconds left in the third quarter when running back Doug Murphy scampered 26-yards into the end zone to cap a 57-yard Toledo drive.

That proved to be the lone TD of the game.

Romulus got down to the 29-yard line late in the fourth quarter and handed the ball over on downs, ending its final touchdown threat. Full back Rodney Summers and tailback Dwight Walker carried the burden of the offense while quarterback Kelly Summerfield, a sophomore, is "looking better each game," Baldwin noted.

Summers also led the defensive charge as he recovered a fumble in the second quarter and intercepted a pass in the third to cut off Toledo drives.

"We broke down on two plays and they scored," Baldwin said, "but our defense got the job done."

Don McMann also earned accolades for his top-notch performance on defense as he counted nine solos and five assists. Teammate John Kersey, a sophomore linebacker, was credited with nine unassisted and three assists.

Romulus had the edge in first downs 10-7 but Toledo gained 158 yards from its passing and rushing game as compared to Romulus' 72 yards rushing and 44 passing. The Eagles hit on three of 14 passes with one interception.

Saginaw St. Stephens will be Romulus' Homecoming opponent 1:30 p.m. Saturday and Baldwin sees another tough battle.

"We saw them (Saginaw) play against Willow Run and they are a very basic football team," Baldwin pointed out. "They utilize a straight T and didn't throw one pass the entire game - they come right at you and we're going to have to be ready."

Baldwin said one of the keys to stopping the Saginaw team is containing John Conley, a 6-0, 170-pound fullback.

On his way

With a host of North Farmington defenders behind him and Tim Quinn (30) closing in, John Glenn slotback Jerry Cook (at left) earned some of the 75 yards he picked up against the Raiders Friday night. Glenn made it nine in a row - five this season by turning back their Homecoming and Northwest Suburban opponents 24-14. Coach Jerry Lutri's Rockets will head for Livonia Franklin Saturday to take on the defending league and Class A state champs.

Walker eyes tennis championship

Robin Walker will head for Midland on Friday to play for the Class A state high school tennis championship for girls.

The 15-year-old Wayne Memorial junior earned a shot at the state title by placing first at the regionals held at Dearborn last weekend.

Miss Walker was undefeated in her three outings and also has added the Great Lakes 8 Conference title to her accomplishments this year.

"What else can you say about an undefeated player," remarked Wayne Coach Corky Glasgow. "I feel Robin will be in the thick of the title race up at Midland."

Nobody likes higher gas bills. Including us.

This winter, the prices we must pay our suppliers for Natural Gas are going up. These price increases to us will mean higher prices to you. That's as much a concern for us as it is for you, because we're very much aware of the problem of paying higher gas bills.

How much are bills going up? If the weather is the same as it was last year, bills for most customers will be up an average of 30%. But of that 30% increase, Michigan Consolidated keeps nothing of the additional money you pay. No extra profit . . . nothing to meet increases in our other costs. Every penny will go toward the higher prices we'll have to pay for the Natural Gas we supply you.

We recognize that the reasons for these higher bills may be difficult for you to understand. But today it costs more than ever to find and produce Natural Gas. After investigating these costs, the Federal Power Commission, which establishes the price for all the gas that comes into Michigan, authorized producers to begin charging as much as 200% more for their gas at the well. In addition, the price for the gas we buy from Canada at prices set by the Canadian government is increasing significantly. But in the long run, we believe higher producer prices now will lead to more gas supplies being discovered and brought into production, and will help to insure the continuance of an adequate supply of gas for our homes, stores and places where we work.

We're telling you this now, so you can plan ahead for your higher bills. You can help to reduce your gas consumption and save money by insulating, dialing down and making sure your gas appliances are in top working order. Although it may not be possible to actually reduce your gas bills, you will be saving money by using less gas. You may also want to join our Budget Payment Plan and reduce your peak mid-winter bills by leveling out your remaining payments between now and next July.

Michigan Consolidated is dedicated to the task of keeping Natural Gas your best energy value and insuring that we maintain adequate supplies well into the future. We'll also continue to research and develop cost-saving programs that will be to your benefit. We do care about your tomorrow.

Taste Science Succeeds.

'Enriched Flavor'™ breakthrough brings unprecedented taste to low tar smoking.

By "cracking" cigarette smoke down into separate ingredients, researchers at Philip Morris discovered very special "key" flavor units that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.'

The cigarette packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco is MERIT. At 9 mg., one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

Yet, MERIT actually packs the taste of cigarettes having more tar.

If you smoke, you'll be interested.

Tests Verify Taste

9 mg. tar MERIT was taste-tested against current leading low tar cigarettes ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of smokers were tested. The majority reported that even if the cigarette tested had up to 60% more tar than MERIT, MERIT delivered as much — or more — taste.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now smoke the cigarette.

Ypsilanti captures Belleville Relays

Claiming six of the nine events, Ypsilanti retained the Belleville Relays girls' swimming championship last week.

The defending champ garnered 37 points, beating out John Glenn by 12 points for the title.

Glenn, last year's runner-up, finished one-point ahead of Wayne Memorial (24) which was followed in the standings by Taylor Kennedy (23) and host, Belleville (14).

Wayne Memorial's twosome of Teri Richardson and Lisa Perkins won the diving competition with a combined 190.30 points, while Westlanders came away with gold medals for their performances in the 200-yard backstroke and the 200-yard breaststroke relays.

In the backstroke, Glenn Coach Jean Garbus used the talents of Rhonda Discher, Denise Arhini, Michelle Kubiak and Laurie Grogg who turned in the winning time of 2:21.9.

In the 200-yard breaststroke, the foursome of Jean Sisson, Daena Noel, Rene Hudson and Jody Gar-

Spartans blow lead, fall to West, 40-18

Cherry Hill is finding new ways to lose football games every week and it's causing coach Jerry Pawloski a few more gray hairs over his young gridders.

The Spartans latest frustration came Saturday when they blew an 18-7 lead and lost to Garden City West, 40-18, in a Tri-River League contest. The loss dropped Cherry Hill's record to 1-3 in conference play and 1-4 on the season while West is 2-2 in Tri-River play and 2-3 overall.

"We haven't been playing a full four quarters in our games and that's what we're going to have to do if we plan to win," said Pawloski after Saturday's defeat.

"We move the ball well at times and look strong offensively, but our inexperience, (we) have 13 sophomores on the team; has really hurt us."

Cherry Hill was stung on the opening kickoff when West Senior Mark Downey raced 75 yards for a touchdown. Craig Bradley added the point and the visitors led, 7-0, with the game only 11 seconds old.

But then things changed quickly and the Spartans, taking advantage of two Tiger fumbles, built an 18-7 lead by scoring three quick touchdowns.

Spartans sophomore quarterback Scott Dawson hit senior end Jim Steudle with a fourth down pass on the West four-line for a first down and then capped the drive with halfback Mike Minor blasting over from two yards out. The kick failed and Cherry Hill trailed, 7-6.

A West fumble on its own 34 was grabbed by the Spartans and a 15-yard personal foul penalty against the Tigers moved the ball to the 20. Dawson hit halfback Clarence Guyton with a 22-yard pass to the West eight yard line and scored himself on a one-yard sneak for a 12-7 lead.

Another West fumble on a pitchout was recovered by Mike Minor on the visitor's five-yard line. Three plays later Minor dove across and the two-point conversion failed as the Spartans led, 18-7, with only 3:07 left in the first half.

West moved 56 yards in nine plays, scoring with only 48 seconds left in the half and narrowing the half-time deficit to 18-13. Cherry Hill came out storming in the second half. They moved from their own 25 to West's 20, including a sensational catch of a 27-yard pass at midfield by Steudle.

However, a fumble by the Spartans was grabbed by Keith Gramke of the Tigers and it seemed to take the life out of the Spartans. West dominated the rest of the game. The visitors swept 70 yards in only four plays to take the lead with Downey scoring on a 20-yard counter. Bradley, who kicked out of six extra points attempts, upped the lead to 20-18.

Downey, who scored four TD's, scored on a five yard sweep as the fourth quarter started. West southpaw quarterback Gary Ryan, who hit 8 of 14 passes for 154 yards and two TD's, connected with end Mark Ollinger and back Dale Stuppra for long scoring strikes late in the game, wrapping up the 40-18 count.

Sophomore Dawson, who coach Pawloski says will be a really fine quarterback when he gets a little experience, completed 5 of 14 passes for 60 yards, while Spartan ball-carriers lugged the pigskin 111 yards in 34 tries.

This Saturday is Homecoming for Cherry Hill when the Spartans host Dearborn Heights Crestwood at 2 p.m. The visiting Chargers are 2-2 in Tri-River League play and 3-2 overall.

"I'd like to help, but I'm just one person?"

Do you really think God will accept that?

Maybe you can't help others all by yourself. That's no excuse for doing nothing. Join with others at your local synagogue or church. There's plenty you can do together. Example: In Wisconsin, one religious group set up a halfway house to help women parolees fit themselves back into society. The God we worship expects us to seek out those who need our help, and to help them.

Start treating your brothers and sisters like brothers and sisters.

DON'T VOTE!

UNTIL YOU'VE READ THIS BOOK!

Find out about the other side of Jimmy Carter. Emmy-Award winning journalist Jeffrey St. John tells all. How Carter will capture the South for Big Labor. Where Carter really stands. What the Union Bosses plan. Carter's coming "Imperial Presidency." How Carter destroyed George Wallace. And more! Don't vote until you've read this book! Available in paperback everywhere.

"... Critics like Jeffrey St. John, author of Jimmy Carter's Betrayal of the South are frightened by Carter's attempt to 'evolve a theology of power' that could lead to Christian Socialism. For the most part does prove that Carter's platform is more liberal than the 1972 platform of George McGovern. This he regards as a 'Danger to the South'."

St. John agrees with very little that Carter stands for but he can't be accused of failing to understand the man he describes. His examinations of Carter's labor alliances, Carter's belief in central planning and his philosophy of social reform are valuable. ... DALLAS TIMES HERALD

"... accuses the former Georgia Governor of trading his birthright of limited government and individual freedom for a pot of message - Christian Socialist variety. Excellent documentation of Carter's many inconsistencies." M. Stanton

More food for your money at Chatham.

SUPPLEMENT TO ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS AND YPSILANTI PRESS

Independent research proved it...again!

Which supermarket chain has the lowest food prices? An independent research company set out to get the answer. The result. Chatham was proved to have the lowest prices on the food you buy most.

Shopping was done over a four-week period. And each week over 100 items were checked, meats, frozen foods, produce, canned goods... the items you buy most. All major chains were compared in the survey. When the bills were added up, the survey proved that you get more food for your money at Chatham.

CAN YOU FREEZE LUNCH MEAT

When you're shopping for meat specials, don't overlook the advantages of buying Franks and Bologna and freezing them in quantity. They're even easier than freezing fresh meats because:

No rewapping is necessary. Vacuum-sealed packages, for example, mean they are air tight. Simply pop them into your freezer.

Quality lunch meats are code dated along with the weight and product name clearly marked; so it's very easy to keep track of what's on hand and the freshness of each product.

Lunch meats can be kept in the freezer up to six weeks. (The salt used in lunch meats prevents them from freezing as solidly as a fresh beef roast, for example, and consequently, they can begin losing their flavor if kept longer than this time.)

When choosing lunch meats to freeze, however, keep in mind that coarsely-ground products, such as Kielbasa and Smoked Sausage, may undergo a change in texture, and if a product has a natural casing, it may toughen when frozen. Therefore, it is recommended that these products not be frozen.

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables Protected by Wax Coatings

Why do you think that some fruits and vegetables have wax coatings? To make them shining and lustrous? Yes, that is one reason. But it's not the whole story. An important aspect of wax coatings is that they protect certain fresh fruits and vegetables, bringing them to your produce department in better condition than if they had no coating.

One reason is to preserve and enhance appearance, but the other and more important reason is to preserve quality and nutrition by helping to prevent decay, shrinkage and other damage to these extremely perishable commodities, most of which are transported long distances from field to consumer.

In addition to valuable vitamins and minerals, fresh fruits and vegetables are composed of 85 to 90% water. Therefore they are subject to dehydration, deterioration of quality and loss of nutrients. Waxing provides a way to reduce the rate of evaporation, thus helping to maintain quality of fresh produce.

Just how much wax is used in this preservative process? Astonishingly little. Normally, a gallon of wax will polish five tons of apples! An orange, the first fruit to be successfully waxed commercially in the United States, can be polished with about six drops of wax.

Waxes formulated to protect the quality of fresh fruits and vegetables are especially developed for that purpose, and are non-toxic. The materials are thoroughly tested for safety by both the industry and the government before getting accepted for use.
